

2019–20 Liverpool F.C. season

The 2019–20 season was Liverpool Football Club's 128th season in existence and the club's 58th consecutive season in the top flight of English football. Liverpool also competed in the FA Cup, EFL Cup, FA Community Shield, UEFA Champions League, UEFA Super Cup and the FIFA Club World Cup. The season was suspended from 13 March to 17 June due to the COVID-19 pandemic.<sup>[1][2]</sup>

Season overview

Having finished second in the 2018–19 Premier League, Liverpool contested the 2019 FA Community Shield against domestic treble winners Manchester City, losing 5–4 on penalties after a 1–1 draw.<sup>[3]</sup> As winners of the 2018–19 UEFA Champions League, they contested the 2019 UEFA Super Cup against Chelsea, winning 5–4 on penalties after a 2–2 draw. The victory was Liverpool's fourth in the annual contest; only Real Madrid, Barcelona and A.C. Milan have more wins, with five titles apiece.<sup>[4]</sup>

Liverpool were eliminated in the quarter-finals of the 2019–20 EFL Cup by Aston Villa after fielding a vastly inexperienced side, managed by Liverpool under-23 manager Neil Critchley, while the first-team squad participated in the 2019 FIFA Club World Cup in Qatar under Klopp.<sup>[5]</sup> Having finished as runners-up on three previous occasions, Liverpool won their first world title after defeating Brazilian club Flamengo 1–0 in the final after extra time,<sup>[6]</sup> making them the first English side to win the international treble of the UEFA Champions League, UEFA Super Cup and FIFA Club World Cup.<sup>[7][8]</sup> Liverpool were unsuccessful in their defence of the UEFA Champions League, exiting the competition in the round of 16 following a 4–2 aggregate defeat across two legs after extra time to Atlético Madrid.<sup>[9]</sup>

On 25 June, following Manchester City's defeat to Chelsea, Liverpool clinched their nineteenth league title – the first since 1989–90 and the first during the Premier League era. Upon winning the league, Liverpool claimed the unusual achievement of winning the Premier League earlier than any other team by games played (with seven remaining) and later than any other team by date (being the only team to clinch the title in June).<sup>[10]</sup>

Over the season, Liverpool set a number of other English top-flight records, including the most consecutive home wins (24; of which 7 were carried over from the previous season)<sup>[11]</sup> and the biggest point lead at any time (25).<sup>[11]</sup> They also matched the Premier League records for the most wins (32)<sup>[11]</sup> the most home wins (18),<sup>[11]</sup> and the most consecutive wins (18).<sup>[12][13]</sup> Beginning the season prior, Liverpool enjoyed a 44-match unbeaten run in the league, the second-longest streak in top-flight history, behind Arsenal's run of 49 games between May 2003 to October 2004.<sup>[14]</sup> The team remained unbeaten at home in the league for the third season in a row<sup>[15]</sup> and finished the season with 99 points, the club's record and the second highest in English top-flight history after Manchester City's 100 two years prior.<sup>[16][17]</sup> Liverpool also recorded the
